

Secondary English Teacher September 2017

Job Ref No.: AJT-003

Job Title: English Teacher

Our school:

The Bin Omeir Education Foundation is a successful education company with British and American Curriculum state of the art K-12 schools. The Bin Omeir Foundation's incredible vision seeks to develop our students' in depth academic knowledge and help our students to actively pursue new interests, live life to the full as lifelong learners, and become citizens of the world, proud of their national heritage.

Ajyal International School Al Falah offers students an education that is meaningful and relevant to their personal, academic, and social life using the Significant Learning Model to provide active learning experiences for students 3 to 14 years, following the American Common Core Standards. Our dynamic environment combined with a range of educational experiences, provide exciting opportunities where students will gain success and will reach their potential in becoming lifelong learners.

Role:

- Teaching English Language to student from Gr6 to Gr9
- Inspire trust and confidence in student, colleagues and parents
- To deliver high quality teaching in order to secure the highest standards of learning and achievement for pupils
- Plan, prepare and deliver lessons to suit the educational needs of all pupils.
- Ensure appropriate resources are used to support lesson, motivate pupils and improve teaching and learning.
- Liaise with the Learning Managers, Heads of Department and department members to ensure consistency of standards, teaching and learning, development plans and target setting.
- Carry out pupil assessments in line with departmental and school policy. Record and monitor pupil progress, advising pupils how to improve.
- Using modern technology to enhance learning opportunities.
- Support the life of the school beyond the classroom

Qualification:

- Relevant Bachelor Degree.
- Minimum of 4 years teaching experience as full time.
- Good level of IT competency
- Experience in the American Core is an advantage.